Julius Caesar made it a municipium called Felicitas Julia, adding to the name Olissipo. Ruled by a series of Germanic tribes from the 5th century, it was captured by the Moors in the 8th century.

In 1147, the Crusaders under Afonso Henriques conquered the city and, since then, it has been the political, economic and cultural centre of Portugal.

The City is filled with spectacular views and is one of Europe's most stunning Capital Cities.

São Francisco Church is known for its lavish baroque interior with ornate gilded carvings and the palatial 19th-century Palácio de Bolsa, formerly a stock market, was built to impress potential European investors.

Also known as Oporto (the Port), it is the second-largest city in Portugal after Lisbon. The City has a population of nearly 300,000.

Day 6: DOURO VALLEY Today is a private tour by vehicle through the stunning Douro Valley, the main wine producing region of Portugal. You will be collected from your accommodation after breakfast.

This Unesco World Heritage Landscape area is not only the oldest officially recognised wine region in the world, and home to the famous Vinho do Porto, but it's also a beautiful area to drive around. Breath-taking views are around every turn.

The river carved deep valleys out of the Schist mountains and plantations of vineyards were created in the fertile soil. The vines, emerald green in the summer and flame red in the autumn are set in inclined terraces to expose the vines to the sun assisting the grapes to ripen and produce some lovely wines.

You will visit a Premium Winery with tasting.

The trip takes a very scenic route following the river Douro, however, there are some quite long stretches of driving time.

Often the driver of this tour will be the same as in the Porto city tour, so because this is a private tour, you can discuss any final details for the trip the day before. The duration is 7 to 8 hours.
